The 7 continents of the world

Continent

A large landmass on Earth of which there are seven: Africa, Asia, South America, North America, Antarctica, Europe and Oceania.

Atlas

A book that shows the location of places and features at a global or national scale.

Tourism

The activity of travelling to and visiting places for pleasure.

Latitude

Imaginary lines on Earth showing how far north or south a place is from the Equator.

Capital cities of Europe

Human feature

Something that humans have made or built.

Capital city

The city where a country's government is based.

Climate

An average of weather conditions in a place taken over a long period of time.

Physical feature

A natural feature that has not been made by people.

Europe: How diverse are the landscapes and places of Europe? (Year 4)